Algodon Fine Wines is proud to announce that its Malbec-Bonarda 2010 is now featured on the highly acclaimed wine list of London's famed Restaurant Gordon Ramsay, a Michelin 3-Star Restaurant, and Gordon Ramsay's first solo restaurant. Located in Chelsea, his venue was voted Top Restaurant in the UK by a London Zagat Survey in 2001, only three years after opening, and has remained a hallmark of London ever since.

“We feel very honored to have our wine recognized by Restaurant Gordon Ramsay, and to be given a place among their Sommelier’s thoughtfully crafted list of wines” said Scott Mathis, Algodon’s founder, chairman and CEO. “This is the second Michelin 3-Star restaurant this year that has included one of our wines on their estimable wine list. For that we are grateful, and feel very fortunate. We look forward to an exciting year ahead in which many new people will be introduced to our fine wines, both in the U.K., and now also in the U.S. where we have recently become available.”

Restaurant Gordon Ramsay was founded in 1998 by Gordon Ramsay at the age of 31, representing his first wholly owned restaurant. It combines exquisite French cuisine with an intimate ambiance, designed by none other than Fabled Studio, seating a maximum of 45 guests. Clare Smyth MBE was appointed Chef Patron in 2007, becoming the only female Chef in the UK to hold a three Michelin star accolade.

Restaurant Gordon Ramsay has received international praise such as The S. Pellegrino World’s 50 Best Restaurants , and as a result of its recognition, reservations typically must be made 3 months in advance. The Good Food Guide rates it as the second best restaurant in the country, only bettered by The Fat Duck, which also carries Algodon’s award winning Malbec wines. This stands as a testament to the high quality and international recognition that Algodon Fine Wines have achieved.
